

Book a Librarian!

Book time with a librarian for one-on-one assistance.

Let us lend a hand if you need some help!

We offer the opportunity to “book a librarian” for uninterrupted personal assistance with whatever you need.

From help with e-books and computers to job help or finding the right materials for your school project, Grantsville Library staff are on hand, ready to help answer your questions and point you in the right direction.

You can submit your online book-a-librarian request by emailing grantsvillecitylibrary@grantsvilleut.gov. A librarian will be in touch with you after that to set up an appointment that’s convenient for you.

Ask your library staff for more information 435-884-1670.